PRINTED IN THE USA

Welcome to another year ... another fresh start, another grand opportunity to reach our goals, another chapter in this wonderful thing called LIFE!

2021 WAS QUITE A YEAR, but it offered a glimpse of promise as things slowly ventured back to normal. While today's "normal" is quite different from yesterday's "normal", 2021 did allow for the ease of restrictions related to COVID. While the restrictions varied based on what country you resided, we saw an increase of gatherings, promo events, photo shoots, and other face-to-face networking.

WE WERE FORTUNATE, and grateful, to be able to release 22 issues of RHK Magazine in 2021! Our wonderful team never missed a month ... in fact, we were able to publish twice monthly in some cases, thanks to the plethora of submissions we received!

Another accomplishment was our ability to expand our global reach, which now includes networking with models and photographers in USA, UK, Canada, Italy, and Singapore.

LAST, BUT NOT LEAST, was the approach to our subscription-based model. Now, once you subscribe for one low price, you will gain access to our entire library of publications ... over 235 issues featuring the world's hottest glamour and nude models!

Thank you for everything ... I sincerely appreciate each and every one of you! Let's make 2022 a great year!

RED-HOT
TIPS

Don't Let Your Looks Blow Your Interview

The perfect resume means nothing if you can't sell yourself at a job interview. And most interviewers form an opinion before you shake their hand ... potential employers really do judge books by their covers.

So, how can you dress to get your foot in the door?

The most important element when dressing for a job interview is to evaluate your setting. Different offices enforce different dress codes -- an advertising agency, for example, might allow a little more personality than a government office. If the employer has an HR department, ask someone there about the company dress code. When in doubt, dress conservatively.

While you don't always need to wear a suit, keep in mind that you should dress for a position two levels higher than the one for which you are interviewing. If that means wearing a suit, choose a well-fitted, neatly-pressed suit in a dark, neutral color other than solid black.

Even if you opt for a more business-casual look, wear a collared shirt and a jacket. Make sure that all clothes fit well, are clean, and do not have loose threads or wrinkles.

And, although often overlooked, remember it's what is inside that counts. While your interviewer certainly shouldn't see them, it is important to choose the right kind of underwear. According to a recent Calvin Klein Underwear survey that polled 600 men and 400 women (available at survey.com), approximately 70 percent of those polled admit their undergarments are an extension of their personality. In addition, 80 percent say a good pair makes them feel more confident.

"Whether you are wearing a crisp white shirt with slacks or a tailored suit, it's important to set your foundation with a stylish and comfortable set of underwear."

- Jeannie Mai, celebrity stylist, host of Style Network's "How Do I Look" and "Extra" correspondent.

"Consider Calvin Klein's Classic Two Pack Boxer Briefs (www.cku.com). They are 100 percent cotton with a traditional fit, and are sexy, yet functional, with the signature logo waistband. Available in black and white, they can lend added confidence for your interview."

To add the final touches to your dressed-to-impress style, polish your shoes to demonstrate attention to detail. Cleanly groom your hair, and you'll show any respective employer that you mean business!

What is your sexiest feature?
My brain. (Your sexiest feature is just a set of mind. Pun intended. If I had to pick a physical feature, it would be my innocently-cute, but also edgy-looking modelesque face. I get consistent feedback that I have a great smile and that I can pull off all different types of looks.)

Grace had a very, very boring childhood. Her parents were typical suburban Asian tigers. The reason her parents lived in Northern Virginia was so that she could attend the #1 public high school in America (Thanks, Newsweek). Her parents assumed that she would get into the Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology (TJHSST) before she was even born. She just remembers studying a lot. After the trauma of TJHSST, she decided she liked the arts better, so she continued her interest in the arts after graduating from The Johns Hopkins University by working with talent agencies along the East Coast. Posters of her likeness are hanging on the walls of major cities and she has appeared on TV in commercials and TV shows. She has also interned at the U.S. Department of State, The Public Defender's Office in Baltimore, worked at a law firm, the JHU Bloomberg School of Public Health, and is now modeling, acting, dancing, and taking classes for sketch comedy writing at clown school (a.k.a. The Upright Citizens Brigade). Once she met Truc, she knew her life would be forever changed.

Sensual and feminine ....

I'm an Italian sexy star and I gladly entertain the public with my erotic shows around Italy, in the most famous Italian nightclubs. At the same time, I enjoy giving new shots to my fans. I also worked in the past as a model and image girl, and I participated in numerous beauty contests such as Miss Mondo, Miss International, Miss Pandemic-time ... bringing home various awards.

How long have you been modeling? At the age of 8-years-old, modeled for little girls beach costume. My first calendar was made in bikini at the beach and sold at the age of 14-years-old, because I wasn't already much different from now.

Who or what inspired you to start modeling? I don't know. I have not looked for this path, but it happened to me... life on several occasions has led me to meet people who have noticed me and seen potentials congenial to their projects. I am moody and my mood can often be seen from the various shoots in which I look like different people. I define myself as complex and chameleonic. I don't have a particular source of inspiration, I always do only what I like to do and makes me feel good at the same moment.

How would you describe your modeling style? Sensual and feminine, I like glamour style.

What is your most memorable moment as a model? When in 2011, I arrived as a finalist at the beauty contest Miss International. Also, when I appeared in magazines such as For Man, Playboy Italy, Interviú Spain.

What are your modeling goals, short-term and long-term? Absolutely, I have other plans for my working life, but I would like to continue taking shots from time to time because I like it and have fun doing it.

What is your sexiest feature? I prefer the back and the bottom of the body (ass). I don't find my face particularly photogenic, and I would like to improve my expressiveness to convey more the eroticism, that instead is part of my personality.
